PINEHURST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pinehurst, N. C., December 9.—Among the most interesting of the week's visitors were Nelson B. Cobb and Clarence H. Shaw, of Rockland, Me., en tour on a 2,300-mile automobile trip.
Mr. Cobb says the national highway is far from complete and following the Golden Tourists as he did, he got the worst of conditions. The stretch just below Roanoke, he says, will be hard to perfect, owing to difficulties of mountainous construction. The best roads encountered were over a capital highway from Savannah to Pinehurst, and he predicts great popularity for the route when the direct strip between Richmond and Washington is perfected. The line leads to the points the Northern tourist desires to visit, he asserts, "and until it is completed it will not be easy to interest Northerners in winter touring."

Last year Mr. Cobb toured 28,000 miles, and this year he expects to exceed that sum by several thousand. He plans to reach home on Christmas Day, stopping at Raleigh, Richmond, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Portland on the way northward.
Socially, the automobile is playing an important part here, for many visitors bring their cars and excursions to numerous nearby points of interest are popular. "Some go for the day and a picnic lunch, others for a few days camping or shooting, while the afternoon runs include several triangular trips ranging from twenty to fifty miles."
Riding claims many. Miss Florence Bennett, of Binghamton, and Dr. J. C. Wood, of Cleveland, rarely missing an afternoon gallop. "Informal golf events are occupying attention, and tennis interest is keen. The regular meetings of the Village Club were resumed Wednesday, and afternoon tea is the occasion for a congenial gathering, with bridge rounding the evening for the older set and dancing for the younger.

Charles Harris, of High Point, N. C., has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harris, on Main Street.
C. O. McMichael and Numa F. Reid, of Wentworth, N. C., visited friends and relatives here this week.

Mrs. J. W. Millaway and daughter, Miss Josie Millaway, left Saturday to visit relatives in Augusta, Ga.
Mrs. R. R. Ratliff and Miss Mollie Fetzer, of the graded school faculty, visited Raleigh, N. C., last week to attend teachers' assembly.

DURHAM

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., December 9.—The Tourists, who are now literally traveling in Egypt, were the guests of Mrs. W. A. Erwin, in West Durham, Thursday afternoon. There was a full attendance, and the club was most charmingly entertained. Mrs. I. F. Hill headed the program with notes on "Israel in Egypt." Mrs. J. A. Robinson read a paper on "Rameses II." Mrs. E. K. Powe read "An Egyptian Woman of the Nineteenth Dynasty." Mrs. Floyd Lambie was hostess to the Auction Bridge Club Friday afternoon, and the club had a delightful meeting. The twelve women composing the club were present, and occupied three tables. The game was a spirited one. A delicious salad course was served.

The lady board of managers of the Durham public library held a meeting Saturday afternoon and elected Mrs. I. F. Hill, president, to succeed Mrs. W. L. Wall, who resigned because of her removal to Hillsboro to reside.
H. R. Goodall, on Monday evening, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, entertained his supper and smoker. "Wild turkey was the leading feature, and it was an occasion of warm hospitality between employer and employees.
Captain Sidney C. Chambers, of the Durham military, gave his friend, W. T. Minor, a farewell bachelor supper Tuesday evening at the Commonwealth Club rooms. It was an eight-course luncheon. Immediately after supper Mr. Minor, with his bridal party of men attendants, left for Elizabeth City, where he and Miss Etta Briggs Adyelt, were married Wednesday evening.

The Senior Bridge Club and the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club were the guests of Mrs. John M. Manning and Miss Lottie Sharpe, Tuesday afternoon. The residence of Mrs. Manning was beautifully decorated in a simple way, with yellow chrysanthemums. "The games were spirited and both clubs had one of the best afternoons of their existence. A salad course was beautifully served.
